Following the initial response and the provision of the unique reference number, AFX will respond within two (2) months, from the date of the complaint, telling you whether the complaint has been resolved, or why we need more time to look into it. In any case, our response will be communicated to you in no more than three (3) months from the date of the complaint.

At this point, we would like to inform you that if you are not satisfied with our response, or in the case that a response is not given at all for any reason whatsoever, or in the case that your complaint has been rejected, you have the right to contact the Financial Ombudsman, in case you are eligible to file a complaint with them and ask mediation for possible compensation.

The Financial Ombudsman is an independent service for settling disputes between Cyprus Investment Firms (CIF’s) and their clients.

The Financial Ombudsman should be contacted within four (4) months after a response has been given to you, or within four (4) months after no response has been provided to you after the response period for AFX has elapse i.e. three (3) months after the complaint was filed. If the above mentioned periods are not followed, the Financial Ombudsman may not be able to deal with your complaint.
The Financial Ombudsman can be accessed via http://www.financialombudsman.gov.cy. In the case where the Financial Ombudsman’s response is not accepted by you, AFX would like to inform you that, as a last resort, you may start a civil action in a District Court.
